

Know Your Chicago

Designed to promote education in civic leadership by enabling the people of Chicago to become acquainted with the larger functions of their city. Lectures by distinguished Chicagoans will be supplemented with tours to key points in Chicago.

This is the sixth annual series presented by the Woman's College Board and University College, The University of Chicago. The co-operating groups in 1954 are: Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council, Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, the Junior League of Chicago, the Chicago Crime Commission, and the League of Women Voters of Chicago.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE offers adults the resources of the University of Chicago. The Downtown Center, at 19 South La Salle Street, gives credit and noncredit classes at night, including some programs for Master's degrees. The Home-Study Department offers correspondence courses on the University level. The Radio Office produces The University of Chicago Radio Round Table. The Union Education Service works with trade-union leaders. The World Politics program fosters community discussion groups. Separate brochures are available on these, as on such other enterprises as The Basic Program of Liberal Education for Adults. The Executive Program and the M.B.A. Program will be offered this year by the School of Business at 190 East Delaware Place.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE BOARD, which is a not-for-profit organization of the alumnae of the member colleges, encourages interest in the education of women by giving impartial college counseling, free of charge, at its office at 30 North Michigan Avenue. This coming year a forum on "Who Is the Educated Woman?" will be presented at the Blackstone Hotel on January 26, when the speakers will be Dr. Millicent McIntosh, president of Barnard; Dr. Otto Kraushaar, president of Goucher; Dr. Lillian Gilbreth, engineer. Moderated by Dr. Bergen Evans, author.
